COUNTY BUDGET HAS APPROVAL OF SUPERVISORS

Several Departments Are Granted Increases While Others Remain Same As Last Year

Following a public hearing attended by only a handful of taxpayers, and marked by a single protest, a salary budget of $559,273 for the fiscal year 1938-39 was adopted by the County Board of Supervisors at their meeting, Tuesday of this week.

Although the budget is $34,896 in excess of the salary budget adopted at this time a year ago, the net or actual increase over the 1937-38 allowance is $11,146.

Officials explained the difference in figures this way:

In May, 1937, the supervisors adopted a budget of $524,377. However, during the present fiscal year the board made additional appropriations from time to time, amounting roughly to $24,000, which were not included in the original budget. These brought the total salary allowance for 1937-38 up to $548,127.

County Executive E. A. Rolinson declared it was only fair to compare today's budget to the $548,127 figures, inasmuch as numerous appropriations were added to last year's original budget.

He said that actual expenditures during 1937-38 cannot be determined until the end of the fiscal year on

JUNIOR COLLEGE OPENS BIDS FOR SCIENCE BUILDING

Students Busy With Activities Preceding Commencement Exercises, June 9

With bids let for the construction of the new science building on the recently purchased San Mateo Junior College campus, the jaysee students are expecting to see construction starting within a short period of time.

Recent student body elections named Willie Silva of Redwood City as president for the coming fall semester; Bard Evans of Burlingame defeated Bob Cardoza of Half Moon Bay for the vice presidency; Jean Shepherd of Menlo Park was named secretary and Betty Lou Simpson of San Mateo will become the first coed treasurer.

With the ending of the junior college dance at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel in San Francisco last week end, the students have only one more dance scheduled for this semester, that being the Sophomore Formal at the Palace Hotel, June 10. Commencement exercises will be held the day before.

Entering only nine trackmen in the Junior P A track meet at San Jose State last Saturday against 250 university and college men, the junior college took third place. Stanford's track team won, while San Jose State with a squad of 25 men earned one more point than did the Mateans.

San Mateo baseball men closed their 1938 season by dividing two conference games at Modesto Jaysee, losing one 3-2 and winning the other 3-1.

Harry B. Smith, dean of Pacific Coast sports editors, attended the junior college tennis banquet recently. He has attended for the past six years and is considered a member of the college squad. He discussed the present conditions in the sports world for the group of tennis players and faculty guests.

Two publications at the college are to be issued very soon. The year book, which has been in the process of making for several months, and The Lit, literary magazine of student work, are just about ready for distribution.

Judge McNutt Again To Be Candidate

Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt, early this week, announced he would be a candidate for the same office at the August primary election.

Formal declaration of candidacy was filed in the county clerk's office in Redwood City. Judge McNutt is completing his first term in the superior court.

MAYOR URGES CITIZENS TO BUY FAIR ADMISSIONS

June 1 To 18 Designated By City Officials As "Thirty-Niner" Days

When the official World's Fair of the West, the Golden Gate International Exposition, opens its gates at 10 a.m. next February 18, all that the Pacific West has to offer in science and invention, industry and agriculture, fine and liberal arts, will go on parade before the eyes of the peoples of the world.

Between the days of June 1 and 18, we shall have the opportunity to help our own Exposition further along the path to maximum financial success.

Between these dates we shall have the opportunity to purchase Exosition "Thirty-niner" scrip books and sponsors' season passes.

There are two reasons why "success insurance" should be bought for the exposition in the form of passes or scrip books.

First, such an act is a timely gesture of support for the undertaking.

Second, by buying the passes or scrip books, we shall be enabled to save money on admissions.

"Therefore, I Paul G. Selmi, mayor of Daly City, commend the 'Thirty-niners' ticket sale campaign to the citizens of Daly City as eminently worthy of their support.

"And, in furtherance of their campaign, the successful outcome of which is vital to all of us, I hereby designate the period June 1 to 18 as 'Thirty-niner Days.'

"Dated at Daly City this 27th day of May, 1938."

"P. G. SELMI, Mayor."

CROSBY SAYS HE INTENDS TO RUN FOR CORONER

William F. Crosby this week made announcement of his intention to become a candidate to succeed himself as coroner of San Mateo County at the coming election.

Crosby has served in this capacity during the past four years with credit to himself and benefit to the citizens of the county. He has instituted a number of improvements in the conduct of the office during his administration. One of these was the installing of a 24-hour service, thus enabling any interested persons to obtain desired information regarding any case coming under his jurisdiction at any hour of the day or night. He has also been instrumental in securing co-operation by the toxicology department of the San Francisco County coroner's office for securing blood tests and examination for poisons in the body of any victim of untimely death occurring within San Mateo County.

Crosby is a licensed mortician and embalmer, and, although not now actively engaged in business here, he formerly operated a mortuary establishment for a number of years.

SPRING CLEANING DECIDED SUCCESS

The health officer of Daly City reports that the second annual spring cleaning week, held from May 9 to 14, proved to be a great success and showed how really efficient community action can be in community sanitation.

The health department hopes that all the residents will co-operate and help in any future health or sanitation programs.

Milwaukee Girl Weds Ickes In Dublin

Jane Dahlman, 25, Milwaukee girl, who "eloped" to Dublin with Harold Ickes, secretary of the interior. So secretive was the sailing of the "elopers" that employes in his own press section were under the impression that the secretary was in his office. Mrs. Ickes is a niece of John Cudahy, United States minister to Ireland, whom she was visiting. Ickes' first wife, the former Anna Wilmarth Thompson was killed in an automobile accident near Santa Fe, N. M., in 1935. Capital circles were surprised to receive cables from the Irish capital announcing the wedding. The new Mrs. Ickes is the sister of Mrs. Wilmarth Ickes of Winnetka, Ill., widow of the secretary's stepson, who died in 1936.

Mayor Considers Civic Possibilities

Mayor Paul G. Selmi

Without doubt one of the most auspicious occasions in Daly City for many months was the formal opening of the new Jefferson Union High School gymnasium and swimming pool. Like hundreds of other Daly City citizens I visited these excellent facilities with great enthusiasm. Here, in our small community, we have one of the finest buildings of its kind in the entire Bay Area. Cosmopolitan San Francisco has few pools that equal ours in size and modern equipment. The gymnasium, with its spectators balcony, combines the very best in up-to-date sports furnishings.

Both the gymnasium and swimming pool are at the disposal of the adults of the community in the evening hours; thereby, a two-fold service for Daly City is provided. Many more citizens could be accommodated, however. This recreational center should be utilized on a much larger scale. Get acquainted with its offerings now.

My highest praise goes to those responsible for the inception and completion of this exceptionally fine project. Benefits will be far reaching, both among the children and the adults of our city, and for generations to come the pool and gym will aid in the building of better citizens.

I have been attempting to analyze why school district authorities sometimes accomplish what municipal authorities, however well intentioned, cannot. The only plausible answer I found was that municipal officials often have to contend with political problems which do not hamper the school authorities. In this statement I do not infer that the difficulties of the school authorities are simple in comparison to ours. I merely mean that we have obstacles unknown to them.

For instance, we are more involved politically. Many of you may wonder, and justly, why this should matter as far as civic accomplishments are concerned.

It would not matter if politics were always based solely on general welfare, but, unfortunately, personalities and self interest occasionally control municipal affairs to the detriment of the general good.

Time and again proposals for municipal improvements that would have

Singled down in the Oregon gubernatorial race are Charles A. Sprague, Salem, Ore., newspaper publisher, and former State Senator Henry L. Hess of La Grande. Martin, who sought renomination.

SECOND MEMBER OF FAMILY FAILS IN DEATH TRY

Despondency Over Death Of Sister Given As Probable Cause For Attempt

Mrs. Jessie Pennize, 24, of 224 Citrus street, San Francisco, a sister of Mrs. Elda Metnitz, 22, who killed herself, Tuesday of last week, by drinking poison when she learned she was about to become a mother of a third child, was saved from self destruction, Saturday of last week, by the alertness of an employe in a cemetery at Lawndale.

He rushed her to Villa Sanitarium, where physicians pumped out her stomach. She is expected to recover.

The woman, when questioned at the hospital, explained she had tried to end her life by drinking two bottles of iodine because of grief over her sister's death.

On her person was found an unsigned note addressed to her husband Frank: "To my husband—with love to you. Cheer up. Don't let things get you down. You have your family and I have no one. I request all my belongings be saved for children. They are as much to me as I am to my mother. Tell ma and dad to forgive me and give them my love."

Officers said they believed the children referred to were those of Mrs. Metnitz, as Mrs. Pennize was childless.

Under a recent act of the Legislature county employes may participate in a pension-retirement program with the pension to depend upon the time of service and retirement voluntary at the age of 60 and compulsory at the age of 70.

HANDICAP STARS IN COMPETITION AT HOME TRACK

Will Act As Prep Performance For Marchbank Handicap On Getaway Day, June 4

Tanforan presents two of this most important fixtures of the spring meeting, Saturday and Monday. The $5,000 added Exposition Handicap headlines the racing fare Saturday, while the $2,000 added Tanforan Juvenile Stakes tops the special Memorial Day program Monday. Both engagements have attracted outstanding horses.

Ligaroti, the Argentine champion owned by Bing Crosby and Lin Howard, was assigned top weight of 126 for the Exposition Handicap which is for 3-year-olds and upward at a mile and one sixteenth. The Juvenile stakes is an allowance engagement for 2-year-olds at four and a half furlongs.

The winner of the Exposition Handicap undoubtedly will probably be the favorite for the Marchbank Handicap, as virtually all of the leading contenders will be in competition.

Bill Farnsworth, which stopped short the winning streak of the crack Sir Oracle, is second in the weight adjustments for the Exposition Handicap with 120 pounds. He qualified impressively for the race when he trounced Ariel Cross and Gosum at a mile recently, winning in a gallop by four and a half lengths.

The Exposition will mark the season's debut for Indian Broom, holder of the world record for a mile and an eighth; Wichcee, his stablemate, and Star Shadow, which arrived today from Hollywood Park. Indian Broom drew 118 pounds, Whichcee, 116, and Star Shadow, 115.

Another bold contender in the encounter will be Sweepalot, assigned 118 pounds. Other weights for the race include Plutarco, 112; Fire Marshall, 110; Advocator, 110; Noble Count, 110; Frexo, 110; Warfellow, 107; Best Beau, 107.

The sensational 2-year-old Porter's Mite, hailed as one of the finest prospects in America, is expected to be favorite in the Tanforan Juvenile Stakes. Other stunning youngsters nominated for the engagement include Figaro, Time Alone, Iron Bunker, Don Manners, Ciencia, Sweet Nancy, Brother Nibs, Ned S., Cargador, First Port, Kayel, Early Dude, Say Judge, Byrdford, Bang, Arjac and Celtic Imp.

enhanced community life for all of us were rejected for no other reason, as far as I was able to determine, than personal enmity and selfishness. This situation can be corrected only when the true facts are made known to all of the people. Hence, I should like to urge the public to carefully check information presented to them.

ANOTHER COMMUNITY NEED

Needed almost as urgently as a new city hall, a community hall for this city is now an imperative necessity. Such a hall would provide meeting rooms for civic and public benefit organizations, auditoriums large enough to accommodate mass meetings and annual benefit affairs, and permanent space for junior organization activities. Such a center would knit together our community life and enrich its possibilities.

The Vista Grande School is ideally constructed to serve as such a center. Many progressive and public spirited citizens have already organized as a committee to urge city authorities to purchase the property. I believe this is an excellent opportunity for the people of Daly City to acquire a community hall at a reasonable price and without increase in taxes.

ANNOUNCEMENT

With the revival of the activities of the Works Progress Administration the prospect of getting our new city hall is very good. Everything seems to indicate that we shall receive the approval of the federal government on our application for financial aid in the near future.

Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28, will find women of the American Legion Auxiliary on practically every prominent street corner in every community in the United States, offering little red Memorial Poppies to the passersby and urging them to wear them during these two days and the succeeding Memorial Day. Millions of them will be sold this year and hundreds of thousands of dollars will be turned over to the funds of the Auxiliary for the furtherance of its programs.

Poppy Day is now fifteen years old, and has been growing in public interest and importance ever since it was established in 1923.

In California the American Legion Auxiliary this year will dispose of 450,000 poppies, all of them fashioned by disabled veterans enrolled in government and state hospitals in California. The veterans receive three cents apiece for their work, in contrast to the one cent rate in general throughout the country, and California is proud of its record in this respect. More than 2000 disabled veterans have been given employment and this opportunity to earn a little money for those small extras so important in the life of the bedridden.

Every cent of the $45,000 which this year's sale of poppies is expected to bring in will be expended for direct welfare work by the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of California. Sixty per cent of the proceeds taken in by Daly City Unit No. 410 will be spent in our own local community for welfare work among the veterans.

Legionnaires are reminded that the Legion Auxiliary poppy is the "Flanders Poppy," made of red crepe paper, and that they will find attached to the green crepe paper stem a white label, bearing the words "American Legion" and "American Legion Auxiliary" and the emblems of the organizations.

Every poppy sold accomplishes a three-fold service:

First, it has furnished enjoyable occupation for the disabled veterans and given them an opportunity to earn money for some of their needs.

Second, it will bring in funds to carry on the most fundamental part of the Auxiliary's work as an organization.

Third, it will help keep alive in the hearts of Americans the memories of those who sacrificed their lives over seas. Legionnaires can never forget them; they must never permit their country or the rest of its people to forget them. The little red poppy in the buttonhole speaks of them to those who are forgetting and to those who are growing up without personal recollections of their sacrifice.

Make Poppy Days this year real occasions. Both junior and senior members of Daly City Unit will be everywhere. Be sure you are wearing one of these little red Memorial Poppies.

READ THIS DATA SAFETY COUNCIL HAS FURNISHED

This coming week end the nation will celebrate Memorial Day. What General Sherman said about war still goes, but here is something to think about.

The six major wars in which this country has engaged extended over a period of fifteen years. But in the past fifteen years, according to National Safety Council figures, almost twice as many people have been killed in traffic accidents as were killed in action or died of wounds in those six years! And a man or woman or child killed by a careless driver is just as dead as one whose life is ended by a bullet in warfare. And death comes just as horribly.

Those to whom we pay tribute on Memorial Day gave up their lives for an ideal. But those who died in traffic— what did they die for?—San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission.

Given Surprise Birthday Party

A suprise birthday party was given for Henry Sundermann Jr. of Brunswick street by his wife, Sunday evening of this week.

A delightful evening was spent by those present. Henry received many nice gifts.

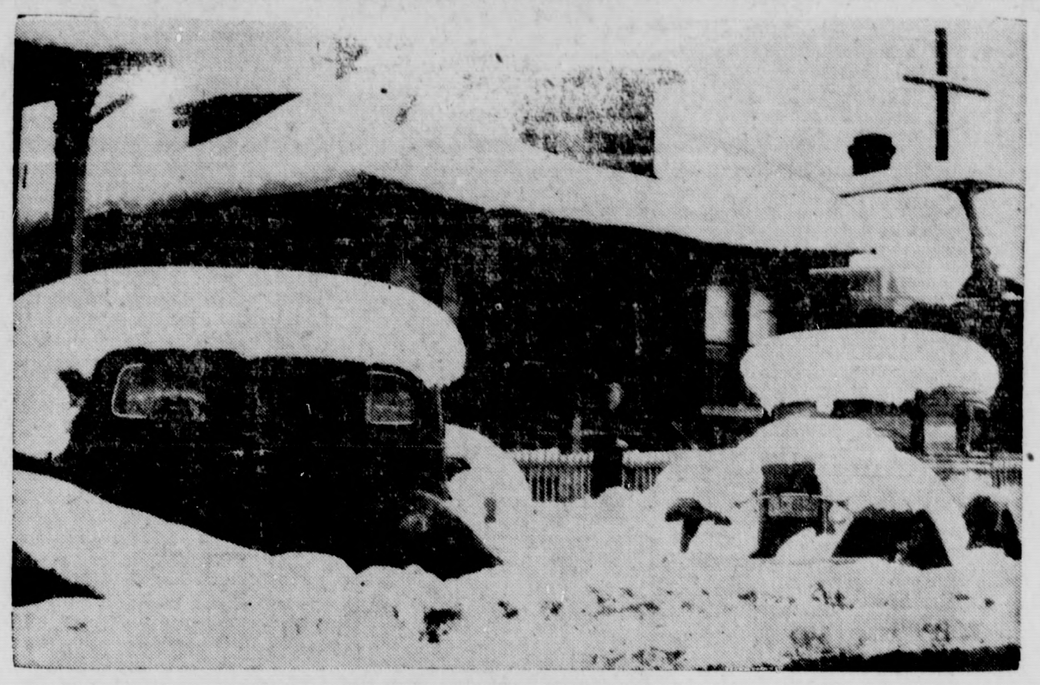
Dainty refreshments were served later in the evening to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Vincent McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurlbut and daughter Dorthean, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hurlbut and son Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Brukeim, Mrs. M. Hurlbut and Mrs. Minnie Barner.

Shoulder Broken In Motorcycle Crash

Raymond Hurlbert, 19, of 173 San Diego avenue, suffered a broken shoulder, Wednesday of this week, when his motorcycle crashed on Junipero Serra boulevard. He was taken to Villa Sanatarium for treatment.

Hulbert's machine slipped on the pavement as he attempted to round a curve on the highway.

SPRING SNOWSTORM SWEEPS ACROSS MONTANA



Sweeping across Montana, one of the worst spring snowstorms in a decade recently left the northwestern state isolated for many hours. Communication lines were down and transportation was at a stand-still. Many cars ran into snowbanks as high as ten feet. It was believed the melting snow might flood Billings when warmer weather comes to the vicinity. Photo shows how autos and houses were covered with snow in the middle of May.

Woodrow Wilson Dramatic Club

The Woodrow Wilson Dramatic Club is going to present another marionette show, June 1, at the Woodrow Wilson Elementary School. This will be the third show that the club has presented. So far, all of the shows have been successful and the club feels confident that this will be the best.

The title of the play is "The Cherryville Frolics," which is woven about two children who decide to go into the circus business.

The president of the club is Roy DeVencenzi and the faculty advisor is Mrs. Lewis.

The manipulators of the characters follow: Edith Fasshauer, Roy DeVencenzi, Raymond Vereautern, Sophie Sikeotis and Mary Rossoff. The musical score is directed by Bernard Janssen.

Mrs. Alfred Canning of Bath, Eng., secured a court injunction forbidding her husband to speak to her.

VERDICT NOT GUILTY

After an hour's deliberation a jury, this week, acquitted Robert E. Langdon, former Washington policeman, who was charged with killing Eulah Limerick on New Year Eve seven years ago.

GILROY ROUNDUP IN FULL SWING OVER WEEK END

Features Of Old West And Cowboy Dance Will Add To Festivities

With high heeled cowboy boots clickin gon the sidewalks, with the clop-clop of horses hooves on the pavement, and the creak of saddle leather, the ninth annual Gilroy Roundup and Gymkhana will get under way this Saturday and Sunday, May 29 and 30.

Expecting more than twenty thousand visitors, Gilroy has gone western in a big way. They will literally take a page from the Old West and present it to the 1938 rodeo fans.

Trick and fancy roping and riding, by worlds champions, races and bucking bronchos, along with more than twenty other thrilling and spectacular arena and track events, will make up a diversified rodeo program that promises to be one of the best seen in this section in many a day.

Gilroy's celebration will be officially ushered in at the big cowboy dance and '49 Camp on Saturday night. The queen of the Gymkhana will be selected at this dance from girls representing many of the towns of central and northern California. The cowboy dance and '49 Camp will be in full swing on Sunday and Monday nights also.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM OUR CONGRESSMAN
JOHN J. McGRATH

Recovery Measure — The Administration's recovery bill passed the House with only two days of debate. An amendment to permit farmers in actual need, but not those on relief rolls, to receive equal status with other applicants for relief, was the only change made in the bill after being reported from committee.

Monopolies—Hope has been expressed by President Roosevelt that when Congress investigates monopolistic practices it will seek methods of doing away with future depressions by discouraging unabsorbed inventories and high prices in some commodities. Before the inquiry is conducted, Congress is awaiting reports from various government agencies.

Navy Expansion Bill — Construction of a large number of war vessels is authorized in the billion dollar naval expansion bill. Three new battleships are provided for and the President is given power to build 45,000 ton ships if other nations build larger vessels; otherwise the 35,000 ton limit stands.

Lobbyists—Lobbying is being investigated by the Senate Special Committee and so far for its inquiry it has had $90,000. Chairman Minton of Indiana wants $25,000 more. It is charged by Rules Committee Chairman Neely of West Virginia that libbyists of the motion picture industry are trying to prevent action on his anti-block booking bill.

Housing—Chairman Fahey, of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board has advocated legislation to liberalize the board's powers. His proposal would allow the board to co-operate in building small apartment houses in small cities; would increase by 250 million dollars the HOLC amount to invest in discounting mortgage paper; and would raise the maximum maturity of eligible mortgages to 25 years. This was advocated before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee.

Flood Control—A five year program of $375,000,000 ending June 30, 1944, has been favorably reported by the House Committee on Flood Control to build reservoirs, flood walls and levees in drainage basins in all parts of the country.

Railroads — The Senate approved bill to liberalize the power of RFC to make loans to railroads has been reported by the House Banking and Currency Committee. The bill, as amended by the committee, will allow RFC to determine what per cent of a loan must be spent in re-employing workers that have been furloughed or placed on part time in recent years. A provision that had caused much more opposition was retained by the committee, and, by so doing, the RFC may take over collateral on past and future RFC loans if the railroads go into reorganization. This is done to protect the RFC.

Helium—President Roosevelt's decision that he is powerless to authorize the export sale of helium to Germany as long as the members of the National Munitions Control Board are unable to agree as to what amount of gas should be sold, has blocked the efforts of Germany to secure helium for her new trans-Atlantic Zeppelin.

Merchant Ships — Another bill strengthening our naval defense is the one approved by the Senate and awaiting House action. The bill would revise construction and operation differentials of merchant ships to enable American builders and operators to meet foreign competition. An independent agency to preside over the maritime labor disputes would also be established by this bill.

Embargo—The resolution by Senator Nye to lift the embargo on arms to Spain has been shelved by a vote of 17 to 1 of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. This was partly due to a recommendation by Secretary of State Hull, who said that real possibilities of complication might set in if a proposal contemplating a reversal of our policy of non interference were to be administered.

Civil Liberties — The La Follette Senate Committee investigating violations of civil liberty has been alloted an additional $60,000 by the Senate Audit and Control Committee. $25,000 for investigation of radio industry; $25,000 for investigation of costs, prices and profits of principal commodities and $30,000 to study profit sharing were also approved by the committee.

CCC — The President's signature has entered the Civilian Conservation Corps into its sixth year. $50,000,000 for another term has been appropriated by Congress. In its five years the CCC has done a great deal of good. It has primed the pocket books of millions of young men and their needy dependents at home. Since most of the enrollees are from families, eligible for, or on relief, the contribution sent to the folks at home has been a boon to harassed relief officials. Three broad objectives have been realized through this agency: Alleviation of unemployment; reclamation and improvement of unemployed youth; and the rehabilitation and conservation of the nation's natural resources. Today the corps has 1500 camps and about 300,000 men enrolled. Present plans will keep the corps at this level for the balance of this fiscal year and during the next fiscal year, 1939.

At the sound of a fire alarm 65 blind inmates of a New York institution marched from the seventh floor to the street in perfect order in one minute and 40 seconds. No damage of any kind was done, it being only a fire drill.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

TROOP NO. 141

Meets Thursdays 7 to 9 p. m. at Nazarene Church, Vista and Santa Barbara

OAKLAND CAMPOREE

Last Saturday afternoon three of our Scouts: John Mosman, Kenneth Claussen and Richard Russell, accompanied by Mr. Straughan, soybeaned over to Oakland and took in their tenth annual camporee. Two hundred and fifty patrols, 2000 Scouts, were encamped in Lake Merrit Park. With their varied tent designs and other original ideas in patrol camping they presented a most unusual and inspiring spectacle.

Our little group did a thorough job of inspecting tent designs, hobbies and other camping gear. Many types of camp ovens were actually in use baking biscuits, cake and other foods. The most interesting feature of the whole layout was the fact that most of the equipment was Scout-made. Plates made from large can bottoms and gaily painted to conform with patrol ideas were quite, a novelty as were knives, forks and spoons which were hand wrought. Camp tables were constructed from almost every conceivable material and in various designs.

The visit proved doubly interesting to our boys owing to the fact that we have engaged in a program of making our own camping equipment as far as is practical. We feel that the knowledge gained thereby will be valuable to each boy who participates in such a program.

We spent the greater part of the afternoon going from one patrol exhibit to another. It was not a case of see one and you have seen all. Every patrol presented a new picture of originality.

Just imagine sniffing the good things cooking on over three hundred camp fires! No wonder Kenneth Claussen, our own griddle cake king, suggested that we do a little eating on our own hook. Lake Merrit was close by, so we went to a store and procured a goodly supply of eats and embarked in a row boat to enjoy our lunch out in the middle of the lake.

Later we went back and finished our inspection of the camporee and stayed for a part of the campfire program in the evening. The Shriner's Band, in their colorful uniforms, provided music between stunts put on by the various Scout troops. Most outstanding of these was a hillbilly orchestra which rendered "Mountain Music" and "Big Rock Candy Mountains" on their ridiculous instruments.

Our boys were enthusiastic in their praise of the whole affair. All of them saw more real Scouting demonstrated, in those few hours, than they had seen in all of their previous lives.

During our inspection of the camporee we ran across Mr. Ledterman of local Troop No. 149 and Mr. Allen of Troop No. 89, San Francisco. They were taking everything in too.

CANTEEN MODEL SHOWN

A model of the canteen which we are now making was shown at the last troop meeting. It is seven inches in diameter and two inches thick. It will be covered with khaki cloth and be provided with a strap for carrying.

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

"Ancien and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hynotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, May 29, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Golden Text will be: "Take heed that no man deceive you" (Matt. 24: 4). Other Bible citations will include: "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. . . . For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. . . . And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. . . ." (Rom. 16: 17, 19, 20 to first period).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health by Mary Baker Eddy: "Error bites the heel of truth, but cannot kill truth. Truth bruises the head of error — destroys error. Spirituality lays open siege to materialism. On which side are we fighting? . . . The notion that both evil and good are real is a delusion of material sense, which Science annihilates" (pp. 216, 330).

DONKEY BITES

Earl Johnson of Templeton avenue is confined to his home suffering with a lacerated knee cap. While he was riding a donkey at Golden Gate Park, Friday of last week, the animal bit him on the knee.

The injured member was treated at the Park Emergency Hospital.

Celebrate Silver Wedding At Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Torres of Los Olivos avenue celebrated their silver wedding anniversary, twenty-five years of happy married life, Saturday evening of last week.

A delicious Mexican dinner was served at 7 o'clock. The table was beautifully decorated in silver and white. The center piece consisted of a crepe paper arch with a miniature bridal procession passing under it. The favors were little cellophane bags of rice tied with white ribbon and spray of lily of the valley.

The guests were old friends, some of whom attended school with Mrs. Torres in Mexico.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames A. Torres, A. Montes, A. Baron, M. Terrasaz, M. Guerrero and A. J. Silvanes, Mrs. M. Montero, Miss D. Antonelli, Messrs. Frank Torres, Ray Torres, Louis Jara, M. Bonilla and R. Pinto.

TOO MUCH

The party was going with a swing, and, as a great treat, seven-year-old Betty had been allowed to stay up late.

As the evening wore on, she became very quiet, and finally, her weary voice was heard piping up: "I think I'd like to go to bed now, mummy, I'm tired of this night life." —Tit-Bits.

OBSERVATIONS OF GOINGS ON IN NATION CAPITAL

(By Hart Goodrich)

Fredericksburg — "Cockpit" Of the Civil War—Now Part Of National Park System

Now that "the Blue and the Gray" of the 1860's have melted into a unified "khaki" of the World War, it is hard for us to realize that the Civil War saw more bitter fighting than any other conflict in which this country has engaged. On Memorial Day, Fredericksburg becomes a point of interest probably only second to the Gettysburg Memorial.

Midway between Richmond and Washington, the section around Fredericksburg saw some of the fiercest fighting of that memorable conflict. Four major battles of the war—Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, the Wilderness and Spotsylvania Courthouse—were fought in or close to the city, and within the area embraced in these fields more men were killed and wounded and more troops maneuvered than on any similar space in the New World. These famous fields, on which more than 100,000 young men of the North and the South were killed or wounded, have been acquired by the United States government and are now part of the National Battlefield Park system. Since the trenches have been restored and positions relocated, it is easy to follow the movements of both armies, 1862 and 1863.

More than twenty-five first line generals lost their lives in these battles, among them "Stonewall" Jackson, who was mortally wounded by his own men only a few hours after he had executed his brilliant march around Hooker's army. Of course, there are a great many "ifs" in history and most are only idle speculation. Probably one of the most important of these "ifs" is conceded by many military experts—if "Stonewall" Jackson, who was Lee's most brilliant general, had lived to help Lee, Civil War history might have presented a very different picture. A three acre wildflower preserve memorializes the place where he fell.

But Fredericksburg is not only noted for its Civil War history. Captain John Smith and party, in 1608, sailed up the Rappahannock as far as the "falls" on which the city is located. Then, in 1671, the first settlers came to build their wilderness homes here. In 1727 the city was officially laid out and named for Frederick, the Prince of Wales.

Augustine Washington, the father of George, was appointed a trustee of the town in 1742 and James Monroe received here his first public honor when, in 1787, he was elected a member of the town council.

George Washington grew up on a farm directly opposite Fredericksburg and in 1752 was made a Mason in the local Masonic lodge. The home and grave of Mary Washington, mother of the First President, is here, as well as the law office of James Monroe, the president famed for his "Monroe Doctrine" concerning the integrity of the Latin-American countries at the threat of "foreign" invasion of them in the early 1800's. Another tourist shrine is the home where John Paul Jones, famous for his naval exploits and the battle cry "We've just begun to fight!," lived.

Under the administration of the National Park Service, Fredericksburg is a thrilling open book of American history, Colonial, Revolutionary and Civil War.

NEARLY CENTURY AGO MEMORIES BROUGHT BACK

Participants In Civil War View Performance And Reminisce About Former Days

The memories of nearly three-quarters of a century ago were brought vividly back to two aged men who sat in the audience at the Alcazar Theater, Sunday afternoon of last week, and watched a youthful Abraham Lincoln on the stage in the Federal Theater's dramatic production of "Prologue To Glory." They were Department Commander F. R. Young and Past Commander Samuel R. Yoho of the G. A. R., officers in the Union Army of the West during the Civil War.

"A magnificent production," was the avowed opinion of both as they left the theater. Both had been visibly moved by the portrayal of Lincoln during the period he worked as a store clerk and was engaged to Ann Rutledge. While neither had known Lincoln personally they knew everything there was to know about him, they said, and had even cast their ballots for him in the field on the occasion of his second candidacy for President.

As guests of the Federal Theater at the same performance were nearly a dozen widows of soldiers of the Civil War and nearly as many veterans of the Indian Wars.

"Prologue To Glory" closes in the near future and in the mean time is playing to capacity audiences nightly.

Next in at the Alcazar—early in June—will be the farce comedy "Squaring The Circle," by Valentine Katayev, a play that has had Europe in stitches for several years. This production will be its first on the Pacific Coast by a professional troupe.

ANDERSON FILES FOR CONGRESS

Jack Anderson, San Juan valley farmer and former San Jose resident, has announced his candidacy for congressman in the Eighth Congressional District. He will file on both the Republican and Democratic tickets. He is registered as a Republican.

He agreed to be a candidate after groups of both business and agricultural leaders of the central coast counties urged upon him the importance of the district being represented by a man having a wide experience both in agriculture and business.

He is one of the third generation of a family which has been prominent in California agriculture since the late fifties. With a brother as a partner, he now produces, packs and markets the fruit from their orchards. Thrown into daily contact with farm, labor and business problems, Anderson is recognized as an able rancher and business man. It was this general recognition of his wide experience which resulted in his being drafted as a candidate.

Car Runs Away Strikes Light Pole

Mary Agnes Madden, 430 Arguello boulevard, San Francisco, was arrested Tuesday afternoon of this week, by Officer Heim, and given a tag for reckless driving.

Mrs. Madden had parked her coupe at 49 Knowles avenue. Left alone to roam at will, the car dashed down the sidewalk, striking a pole of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, then on down the hill banging into a fence and doing damage to shrubbery belonging to John Schmitt of 101 Los Banos avenue.

Several citizens claim the accident was due to intoxication. Luckily, no one was killed or injured. Children might have been playing in the street had the near tragedy occurred other than at 6:20, the supper hour.

The woman is to be arraigned today in the City police court.

CALIFORNIA BOASTS NEW INDUSTRY

Launching the Imperial Valley of California on its latest adventure in agricultural industry, Betty Palmer, of Brawley, Cal., is pictured picking the first sugar beets ever to be harvested in the vicinity. While no official estimate can be made at present, it is expected that within the next few years the sugar beet industry will be valued at 7 to 8 million dollars. Since the beets are grown in winter months and harvested in the spring, farmers are experimenting with a second crop grown through the summer. The Imperial Valley is the largest irrigated area in the world and is renowned for its fertile soil.

Goldwyn Brought South Seas To Hollywood For Hurricane

Two Islands And Four Lagoons Spring Up On "Back Lot" Of Film Studio

Filming a South Sea Island picture in Hollywoood proved a costly undertaking to Samuel Goldwyn.

Originally, it was intended to film "The Hurricane," which will unreel on the screen of the Daly City Theater on Sunday, entirely in the South Seas, thus eliminating the major costs of set construction. Careful analysis proved, however, that the more practical method was to send only a camera crew to the South Seas to film scenic backgrounds and to shoot the story action with the cast in Hollywood. The expense of taking the necessary equipment to one of the islands would almost equal that of bringing a section of the South Seas to Hollywood. The weather gamble was also eliminated by making the picture at the studio.

Consequently, Goldwyn's technicians constructed two islands and four lagoons within a stone's throw of Hollywood boulevard. They imported a fleet of outrigger canoes and equipped two trading schooners. They also installed an enormous and intricate system of tanks, hydraulic pumps and spillways, topped by a 60 foot chute, which was used in creating a hurricane fully as realistic and far more amenable to control than those provided by nature.

The major setting on which John Ford directed his cast, headed by Dorothy Lamour, Jon Hall, Mary Astor, C. Aubrey Smith, Raymond Massey, Jerome Cowan and Thomas Mitchell, occupied two and a half acres of the Goldwyn Studio's "back lot." It comprised an acre and a half lagoon containing 981,250 gallons of water.

Eighteen native huts, a trading post, the government residency of the French Administrator, a church and priest's home make up the village which fronts one shore of the lagoon.

Some 60 cocoanut palm and parau trees fringe the lagoon. Plaster casts of the tree trunks were brought frof the South Seas. Studio technicians did the rest, attaching California native date palm foliage to the concrete reinforced palm trunks and large magnolia leaves to the parau trunks.

Richard Day, Goldwyn's art director, brought 1100 personally shot photographs from the South Seas to serve as guiding models for the setting.

Adjacent to this large island, known in the story as Manukura, is the smaller islet of Motu Tonga. This setting also has its lagoon, a tank 100 feet square, a white beach of imported Monterey sand and a veritable forest of towering cocoanut palms. A subterranean cave, artfully concealed under jutting rocks, is a feature of this setting.

Motu Tonga is uninhabited, but as a refuge for the fugitive hero, Terangi, it figures almost as importantly in the story as Manukura. It is the first to feel the rising wrath of the hurricane. Like Manukura, Motu Tonga is on the "back lot" but is covered by a vast tent, one end of which is a beautifully realistic sky backing.

Interior settings for the production are few, thanks to the complete way in which the Manukura vollage was built. They include a Tahiti honky tonk, a prison and a few more of minor importance.

ROMANCE IN THE SOUTH SEAS

Street Car And Trailer Collide

Passengers on a south bound No. 40 street car were badly shaken but uninjured, Wednesday morning of this week, when the car struck an auto trailer as it was making a left hand turn into an auto court on Mission street near Citrus avenue.

The auto and house trailer, driven by Herbert E. Matzick of Santa Monica, were dragged along the track some distance before the street car could come to a halt. Considerable damage was done to both vehicles but the driver escaped with only a slight bump on the head.

June 30. Other officials said it would be safe to estimate that the twelve months allowance will be used up.

Before adjournment until June 7, the supervisors appointed Will H. Toepke, San Mateo architect, as official architect to prepare the drawings, plans and specifications for the proposed $250,000 annex to the county courthouse, and authorized Executive Rolinson to sign the contract with Toepke. As a condition of his appointment, Toepke must surrender his former contract for preparation of the original office building project.

It is proposed to build an annex costing $225,000, and equip it with $25,000 worth of furnishings. The county has already raised $100,000 and will probably raise another $50,000 in the next fiscal year—$25,000 for the building and $25,000 for furnishings.

Application has been made to the PWA for 45 per cent of the construction cost. The county expects to get more than $100,000 from the Federal govenrnment, inasmuch as the PWA had already approved an $81,000 grant for the office building project. PWA officials have given tentative approval to the switch to the annex.

The largest single departmental budget within the salary budget was that of the hospital, $133,145, which showed a decrease over the current year's allowance of $134,685.

The public health division, including the public health clinic, showed an increase from $18,900 to $23,460; the social service division from $19,520 to $22,740; and the sheriff's office from $40,800 to $42,420. These were among the largest departmental increases.

WILL PAY FINES

At Washington, D. C., early this week, the U. S. Department of Justice announced defendant oil companies and executives awaiting trial at Madison, Wis., on anti-trust charges, have decided to enter pleas of nolo contendere and pay maximum fines and costs totaling $400,000 rather than stand trial.

BADEN TO OPEN RACING SESSION A WEEK HENCE

Fast Greyhounds From All Sections To Disport On South San Francisco Oval

Baden Kennel Club, which closed nine months ago, on August 28 last year, will reopen for its 1938 meeting, Saturday evening, June 4, it was announced this week by R. C. Stickle, club president.

The South San Francisco greyhound racing oval, one of the most popular in the nation, was a beehive of activity as track officials put more than 850 pure bred racing dogs through their paces in anticipation of the opening. Each greyhound must run for "schooling" races to qualify for Baden events.

Stickle has reappointed all but one of the officials who presided last year. The new member of the Baden "family" is W. L. Hooper, form chart expert from Florida.

H. M. Barton will continue to occupy the dual role of presiding judge and racing secretary, it was announced. He will be assisted by John Thompson, associate judge. Paddock judge will be C. B. Osterman. Other officials are: Club physisician, Dr. T. C. Doak; veterinarian, Dr. T. J. McCormick; lure operator, Eddie Kaiser, and starter, D. Clinton Parker.

Announcement was made, early this week, of the death, in Massachusettes General Hospital at Cambridge, of the death of Elmer Peter Kohler, 72, professor of organic chemistry at Harvard University, and long recognized as one of the nation's outstanding chemists.
